4. A leading personality of the Allgemeiner Deutscher Verlag is one Herr Kosubek, publisher of the Historisches Kabinett editions of the Verlag. Kosubek is responsible for the preparation of Das War Vichy and the other works mentioned above. A native of the Sudetenland and a veteran in the publishing field, Kosubek was editor of a technical journal during the Hitler era. He was captured by the British during World War II, but was apparently free to travel throughout England during this period. He was later transferred to the United States and allowed the same freedom of movement there. Kosubek is now wholeheartedly serving Russian interests although he claims to be a German nationalist. His journal, Berliner Reihe
